

Rantec Conflict Mineral Statement

This statement is being provided to you as a valued customer of Rantec Power Systems, Inc. ("Rantec") regarding our role in the reporting and disclosure requirements under Section 1502 of the Dodd-Frank Act and the final rules adopted by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").

Rantec supports the goals and objectives of the U.S. Legislation to combat violence and human rights violations through responsible sourcing of minerals from conflict-affected and high risk areas. Although Rantec is not a public company subject to the reporting and disclosure requirements under the SEC Rules, we acknowledge the importance of our role in the supply chain and are working to ensure our supplier's compliance with these rules. We do not knowingly procure conflict minerals originating in the conflict region and our aim is to ensure that only conflict-free materials are used in our products. Rantec has confirmed that its major component manufacturers and distributors have policies and procedures in place to address and comply with the Dodd-Frank Act.

Rantec will terminate business with any supplier if it is determine that supplier's sourcing of conflict minerals are directly of or indirectly financing armed groups in the conflict affected and high risk areas.
